The panic which showed itself in rather a mild for the latter part of last week spread furiously to-day, and caused a decided break down in the stock market. A arge majority of the margins of outsiders were wip out on Saturday, and many brokers who managed to carry their stocks over until to-day were forced to press rales and submit to the ruipous decline. The result of this sudden depression cannot very well be foretold, but it is the prevailing opinion that before the close of week the market will recover its steadiness, and a reaction will take place. Compared with the sales at the first board on Saturday, New York Central declines 6%, Erie Railroad 6, Hudson River 9, Reading 15, Milwankee and Prairie du Chien S. Secretary Chase has made the first movement towards assing the currency to approximate the value of coin He has announced that the United States notes in circulation are being withdrawn, and that no more of the interest bearing legal tenders will be issued. This is really a step in the right direction; but as the inflation stimulated thousands to enter the field of speculation, nearly all of whom, being deaf to the voice of reason, are apprepared to meet the shock which this announcement has caused, fearful will be the consequences and great the rule that will follow in its wake. The mass of the people, who sustain themselves by honest industry, will rejoice over the event, and great will be the manifestations of gladuess to-morrow, when the telegraph subounces throughout the length and breadth of the land that the greenback currency is aiready at a premium of one per cent in New York, and that no large sum can be purchased even at that rate. By this movement Mr. Chase has outflanked the associated banks. He has depreciated their issues and given pre-eminence to the Treasury notes. We advised the Secretary, months ago, to adopt this course, and if he has sufficient courage to continue the work, without regard to the destruction that he will cause mong brokers, stock jobbers, contractors and all kinds tators, he may succeed in restoring the currency to a sound basis, and re-enlist the confidence of the people.
